

Family Practice Opportunity Ketchikan, Alaska

Enjoy the wild beauty of Alaska by joining our medical community of over 30 providers. The Ketchikan Indian Community Tribal Health Clinic (KICTHC) is looking for a physician to complete our Family Practice and Internal Medicine/Pediatrics practice. KICTHC provides outpatient medical, dental, pharmaceutical, laboratory, and behavioral health services.

Our clinic is adjacent to the Ketchikan General Hospital where our physicians have admitting privileges ensuring continuity of care. This unique position offers great potential to enhance your skills.

Benefits:

- Competitive base salary
- Relocation allowance
- Six weeks paid leave
- 12 paid holidays per year
- $5,000.00 and 10 days for CME/CE
- Health/ Vision/ Dental insurance
- 401K
- Mutual fund or Life insurance
- Malpractice coverage included
- Federally designated loan repayment site
- No State income tax

Alaska Permanent Dividend for every qualifying man, woman and child

Ketchikan is a friendly coastal community located in southern Southeast Alaska. The island offers a high quality school system (public and charter schools in addition to a university), a thriving art scene and vast outdoor exploration opportunities. Our innovative, high quality medical community makes this practice opportunity truly unique. Call today to learn how you can explore Alaska.

Please contact:
Jennifer Bell, MD
Medical Director
2960 Tongass Avenue
Ketchikan, AK 99901
jbell@kictribe.org

